

Objectives

To protect and preserve scientifically all the records and documents of Government of Karnataka Secretariat

As identified by the concerned Department of the Government, timely destruction of records which have outlived usefulness and thereby assisting the Government in the smooth running of Administration.

Providing access to non-current and non-confidential records of the Government to Scholars, Researchers, Students and general public to enhance their knowledge.

Survey, acquisition and scientific preservation of records of historical value from Autonomous Bodies, Private Institutions and Individuals.

Micro-filming and Computer-scanning the Documents of historical value which are on the verge of natural decay and destruction and to protect them scientifically.

Publication of Historical Documents that are available in the State Archives, Private Institutions and Individuals that are most useful to the society and make them available to the needy people.

Assisting and training Private Archives and Individuals to protect the valuable historical documents in their possession; and to recommend such deserving cases for Central Financial Aid.

By taking the cooperation of Private Institutions and Individuals, who have deep knowledge and interest in Archival Documents, conducting survey and helping such of them to preserve them for the benefit of Society.